Abarkadoodle

Can creative skills be taught? Definitely! Abakadoodle, a proud partner of Crayola(TM), is a national art education program with a totally unique approach to art. Our teaching method, called "process art," emphasizes on the process of creating the artwork rather than on the artwork itself. With process art, students are free to explore and experiment in the process of creating their masterpieces. Our environment encourages students to create unique artwork and fosters their individuality. Our award-winning program utilizes a variety of art mediums such as tempera, watercolors, oil pastels and Crayola Model Magic(TM) modeling compound. ALL ARTWORK WILL BE SHOWCASED USING OUR COLORFUL FRAMEDOODLE(TM)
